Summary of reasons for decision:

The DVD contains a previously classified feature, and a large number of additional components that include cast and crew interviews, a behind-the-scenes featurette, two short films, a bloopers reel, four trailers for the feature, and two additional trailers for horror films.

The feature's original classification is "Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 18 years", with the descriptive note, "Sadistic violence, drug use, offensive language and sex scenes."

The DVD's additional components do not provide grounds to change the original classification or descriptive note.
